Be Seated

FurnitureStyle.com searched its product files recently and turned up several new upholstery introductions for its latest Style Files, an online flipbook that's available for your immediate viewing. Simply click on the Style Files box on the home page, or choose Style Files Archives from the Department drop-down menu, and start clicking and flipping!

Style Files

You'll browse through more than 20 recent upholstery introductions in this month's Style Files posting at FurnitureStyle.com. Contemporary shapes, transitional solutions and high-performance sectionals are among the products you'll find. Some examples:

1. Claude sofa by John Black for Council offers superior comfort and visual appeal. Influenced by 18th Century French baroque designs, Black's firm offers a handless back with rounded corners. The rectangular base encourages the owner to foot the sofa in a room.
